As the weather is changing, the air is getting cooler, the leaves are beginning to turn, and everyone is walking around in their customary blanket scarves sipping on pumpkin spice lattes, which is great, except you can't shake the feeling that you already want to summer to be back again. We totally get it! That's why we put together this list of oh-so-dreamy places you can visit to escape the cold-weather, work-week blues.

San Lorenzo Sea Lodge – Blue Deer II Italy

We all love staying in beachfront villas, soaking in the sun on the occasional snorkel tour or island boat ride, but what about your glorious hotel stay actually being on a boat? This totally awesome and unique concept is just what you'll get when you stay on the Blue Deer, a sailing Catamaran that charts a course for a beautiful adventure each day you set out. Enjoy candlelit dinners on the main deck of the boat each evening, all the guests mingling with each other and enjoying the meal. Reconnect with your love of the sea in a whole new way with this trip.
