Breathe in pure mountain air at the new Hotel Pergola

NEW HORIZONS

If you love to get there first, visit one of these unusual locations before the rest of the world wakes up to their charms

1 HOTEL PERGOLA, NORTH ITALY
Permission to breathe in one of Europe's most unpolluted areas, northern Italy's South Tyrol. This funky Design Hotel – and its eco-friendly mountaintop neighbour, the Vigilius Resort – is a departure from traditional Alpine huts. Climb every mountain, try paragliding, golf or wine-tasting – or just hit the spa, where local treatments are on offer.

GET AWAY: Doubles from around £138 per night. Call (39 04) 320 1435 or visit pergola-residence.it. Ryanair flies to Verona, a two-hour drive away, from 99p each way (plus taxes). Visit ryanair.com.

2 SVETI STEFAN HOTEL, MONTENEGRO
Home to some of the best beaches in the Adriatic, Montenegro (a member state of the former Yugoslavia) has miles of coastline and stunning national parks. The Sveti Stefan hotel is set on a small island in a virtually untouched fortified fishing village.

GET AWAY: Three nights from £380 per person, including flights and car hire. Call (020) 7978 7333; originaltravel.co.uk.
